++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mostly cloudy with some outbreaks of drizzle.

Today:
Another cloudy start with outbreaks of patchy light rain or drizzle at times, mainly along the North Sea coastal areas. Becoming brighter in the afternoon, perhaps with some brief sunny spells. Maximum temperature 19 deg C (66 deg F).

Tonight:
A cloudy evening with further outbreaks of light rain or drizzle. Cloud thickening overnight with hill fog forming as outbreaks of rain and drizzle extend westward. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Wednesday:
Another cloudy start with outbreaks of light rain and drizzle. Becoming largely dry with brief brighter spells in the afternoon. Cloud thickening again later. Maximum temperature 17 deg C (63 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Mainly fine and dry with variable cloud and a little light rain and drizzle along coastal areas. Pleasant in any sunshine, but cool underneath the cloud and in the breeze.
